New House Office Building So Costly Pictures Are Forbidden

I reported the following facts to the wire services today for publication in Sunday's newspapers and asked for help on a free press issue.

Here in Hope we have been engaged for two months in a fight to block construction of a new, unneeded and costly post office — with factions divided over three possible locations; and this fight is still going on despite the pronouncement by Congressman Oren Harris, Fourth Arkansas District, and the General Services Administration that the site has been chosen, construction will begin, and the issue is closed.

I discovered yesterday that Hope is not alone in federal profligacy, politics and tyranny. I discovered that there is an almost identical picture in Washington—where mounting public criticism of the 85-million-dollar Super New House Office Building, most expensive building on earth, has caused the Washingtonians to crack down with press censorship.

Friday afternoon I telephoned a professional friend in Washington to employ a commercial photographer to make a collection of pictures of the luxurious interior of the New House Office Building and bill The Star for his work. We proposed to run these as a feature picture page in this newspaper. At the same time I requested the wire services to work up a feature story comparing the size and cost of (1) The original House Office Building, (2) The present New House Office Building, and (3) This Super-New House Office Building, which has cost to date around 85 million and is not yet finished.

Minutes later my Washington contact telephoned me this shocking news:

"The government won't permit anyone to photograph the interior of this structure built with the taxpayers' dollars!"

My man said he called Adams Photo Co., one of Washington's major commercial photography houses, and they told him there were absolutely no interior pictures available. Adams said they tried some time ago to get pictures for one of the building's suppliers — a lumberman out West — and were turned down flat.

The next call was to the Capitol Architect's Office where the answer again was "No." They said they did have photographs of the early model of the building, but all these were gone — and absolutely no interior pictures of the actual building would be permitted regardless who asked permission.

The Capitol Architect's Office told my representative there had been so much public criticism of the Super-New House Office Building that the government had issued a "no pictures order."

The office added that of course it couldn't stop the making of exterior pictures — but this was meaningless, since the building was so vast it would require photographing from the air, with loss of detail, my contact said. And the luxurious interior, which is what we wanted to see, was absolutely forbidden to cameramen.

My Washington informant said he understood that one of the reasons the building's cost got out of control was that the 435 members of the House of Representatives were demanding individual treatment for each congressman's office.

The Super-New House Office Building is being constructed with public tax funds. The public has a right to see where its money goes. As reporter for the Public the Press has the right to photograph this building's interior — the right to know who issued the "picture forbid" order — and the right to demand that the order be countermanded.

I have asked the wire services to protest for me — and, if necessary take the issue onto the floor of Congress.

Surely, even if the appeal of the Press is denied, there is some one among the 435 members of the House of Representatives who will rise and help strike down this wall of secrecy raised by the bureaucrats between the people and how their tax dollars are being spent.

Biddle to Become NATO Noah's Ark

WASHINGTON (AP)—Starting about June 1, the fleet U.S. guided missile destroyer Biddle will become a kind of NATO "Noah's ark."

At that time, Navy officers and men from six European countries will start reporting to the Biddle at Norfolk, Va., to begin a historic 18-month experiment in "mixed manning" of a warship.

It's a possible forerunner to a NATO-owned-and-operated force of 25 specially built surface ships mounting to 200 Polaris missiles, each with a range of some 2,800 miles.

None of the participating nations—West Germany, Britain, Greece, Italy, the Netherlands and Turkey—necessarily commits itself to joining in a Multilateral Force of Polaris ships later. Britain, for one, is decidedly cool to this $2.5 billion project.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara announced Wednesday night that the 4,500-ton Biddle has been assigned to the experiment in side-by-side living of servicemen of different cultural, political and religious backgrounds.

28 Hearts Stolen in Loveland

LOVELAND, Colo. (AP)—Twenty-eight hearts have been stolen in Loveland, which calls itself America's Sweetheart City.

Manager Mike Deuth of the Chamber of Commerce said 72 big cardboard hearts were posted on light poles prior to Valentine's Day and that only 44 are still up.

A few of the red hearts, with words of affection in poetry, have been found in college fraternity houses.

Thinks Health Dept. Might Need Help

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Health Department will require financial assistance from the state Legislature if reductions in federal grants-in-aid become permanent, Dr. J. T. Herron said Thursday.

Herron, state Health Officer, said he thought the reductions, which apply only to the fiscal year beginning last July 1, will become permanent.

Herron said Gov. Orval E. Faubus has already agreed to ask a special session of the legislature to appropriate enough supplemental funds to get the department "over the jump" for the 1964-65 fiscal year.

Faubus has announced plans to call a special session to consider voter registration legislation and possibly to consider redistricting Arkansas' four congressional districts.

Arkansas' reduction was $138,000 and Herron said it would primarily affect general health services and tuberculosis control.

He said if cuts in these areas are permanent the state will have to do away with five or six laboratory workers in the communicable disease section.

He said the reduction would also cause the elimination of three Little Rock Health Department sanitation officers, one public health nurse and about 10 workers in various counties.

The reductions were originally intended as a stimulus for states to take care of their own needs, Herron said. He added that he has asked the Arkansas Congressional delegation to help get the funds restored.

Court Ruling on Prayer Big Issue

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP)—On June 25, 1962, the Supreme Court barred recitation of an official prayer in the public schools of New York.

Shortly afterward, cut into the marble above the chair of the speaker of the House and picked out in gilt paint, appeared the legend "In God We Trust."

The target was obvious, and the speedy reaction was an indication of the opposition of many House members of the court's decision.

Nearly two years and several more court prayer decisions later, the issue still is boiling in the House.

No less than 144 resolutions to amend the Constitution so as to nullify the Supreme Court's decisions have been introduced in the House. They have been referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., ordered his staff to conduct a painstaking survey of the whole question. This report has now been completed and is in the hands of Judiciary Committee members.

But Rep. Frank J. Becker, R-N.Y., is impatient. He introduced one of the first constitutional amendments to get around the court ruling. It would say nothing in the Constitution could be construed to bar prayers or Bible reading in public schools on a voluntary basis.

Suicide Pilot Tip Brings Extra Caution

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP)—A tip that a Cuban suicide pilot might try to ram President Johnson's jet transport reportedly was the reason for the wartime-type security surrounding the chief executive's Florida trip this week.

Neither the White House nor the Secret Service would comment on the report, published Friday night by The Miami Herald. Johnson was almost certain to be asked about the matter at his news conference today.

Without question, the security measures imposed during Johnson's 16-hour Florida visit suggested there was official concern about the safety of the President while in the air.

The Herald, in a story by Gene Miller, said the Secret Service had received a tip, apparently about a week ago, that a suicide pilot might try to ram Johnson's plane or that a Cuba-based missile might be aimed at the big jet.

According to the newspaper, the Secret Service considered these possibilities highly unlikely. However, it was said that officials decided to take no chances.

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, had this to say about the report: "I do not intend to comment on any story speculating on yesterday's (Thursday's) events. Security measures taken yesterday were taken for good and sufficient reasons. It would not be in the national interest to discuss them any further at this time."

Earlier Friday, Salinger had acknowledged that protective measures "in addition to those normally taken" had been imposed "for security reasons."

Johnson flew to Florida Thursday afternoon and, after stops at Jacksonville, Palatka, Palm Beach and Miami Beach, returned to Washington Friday morning.

Among the security measures that seemed to lend credence to the reported concern about a possible aerial assassination attempt were:

1. Johnson did not fly to Florida on his own easily identified Boeing 707 jet. Instead he boarded one of a fleet of executive jets operated by the Air Force. Newsmen were told the President's plane was being overhauled.
2. All numerical markings were removed from the plane used by Johnson, as well as from two identical planes that accompanied him.
3. Whereas two transports normally are used on presidential flights—one as a backup-up craft available in an emergency—three were flown to Florida. The aim could have been to reduce the odds that any pilot on a suicide mission would find his target.
4. No advance announcement was made of the arrival time for any of Johnson's stops, nor for his departures. Sometimes even his destination was kept secret until he was aloft.
5. Johnson's jet dropped him at West Palm Beach, 67 miles north of Miami Beach. He completed the trip by helicopter, landing on a golf course instead of at Miami International Airport where many reporters, photographers and others waited.
6. On four helicopter flights during the trip, Johnson rode in craft which carried no markings that would identify them as presidential craft. The President's seal was removed from the nose of each helicopter, as were red numerals that normally are marked on the side of each cabin.
7. An unusual number of fighter planes criss-crossed southern Florida and surrounding Atlantic and Caribbean waters during the trip.
8. Even when Johnson was on the ground in Miami Beach, riding in a closed limousine, an Army helicopter with armed security agents hovered barely 75 feet away.

Virtually the entire top echelon of the Secret Service accompanied the President to Florida. This included the chief James J. Rowley, and the head of the White House detail, Gerald Behn.

Shop-in Is Latest Rights Fight Trick

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Shopping baskets piled high with unpaid-for groceries are the newest weapon in use by civil rights demonstrators—the "shop-in."

Results: A falloff in business at supermarkets because demonstrators monopolize carts and jam checkout lines; a falling out among Negro leaders in San Francisco; growing tension among frustrated employees, angry shoppers and determined demonstrators.

In the shop-in, demonstrators enter a store, fill shopping carts with groceries, wheel them to the counter, have them checked out—then say they can't pay and leave the sacks and boxes piled in front of clerks.

Members of the Congress of Racial Equality began the tactic last week at supermarkets of Lucky Stores, Inc., in San Francisco, at Berkeley, home of the University of California, and at Palo Alto to the south, adjacent to Stanford University.

They contend Lucky didn't fulfill an agreement to hire additional Negroes. Lucky flatly denied it, pointed to its Negro employees and said it would have no part of "reverse discrimination."

Tuesday, the largest Negro group in San Francisco, the Baptist Ministers Union said it would sever its ties with CORE if the shop-ins didn't stop.

"CORE has a right to picket, but if it continues to use this tactic, we just can't go along," said the Rev. George L. Bedford, head of the group representing 40,000 of the city's 85,000 Negroes.

The Bay Area Independent, a Negro weekly newspaper, called the maneuver a "malicious idea, highly doubtful" whether it "won much sympathy from either the Negro or white community."

On Wednesday, CORE called off the shop-ins "at least for the time being," but continued picketing.

4 Convicted in Racial Kidnaping

MONROE, N.C. (AP)—Three Negroes and a white man convicted of kidnaping a white couple in the aftermath of a race riot here in 1961 were sentenced today to long prison terms.

One Negro woman, two Negro men and the white man were convicted on two counts of kidnaping.

Superior Court Judge Walter Brook sentenced Mrs. Willie May Mallory, 36, of New York City to 16 to 20 years.

Richard Crowder, 21, of Monroe, was sentenced to 7 to 10 years and Harold Reape, 19, of Monroe, who was sentenced 5 to 7 years.

All sentences are to run concurrently.

Defense lawyers William Kunstler of New York and Walter S. Haffner of Cleveland, Ohio, filed notice of appeal for all defendants.

Interracial picketing around the Union County courthouse touched off a melee the afternoon of Aug. 27, 1961. A few hours later, a white couple, Mr. and Mrs. G. Bruce Stegall of Marshville, N.C., were stopped by a crowd in a Negro section, bound back to back, and held hostage for 3½ hours.

Kunstler, who represented Lowry, told the jury that Lowry's part in the kidnaping was done as a "foolish, stupid act in a moment of excitement."

Testimony was that after the Stegalls were taken from their car, Lowry drove it from the middle of the street to the curb in front of the home of Robert Williams, 39, a Monroe Negro leader now in Cuba.

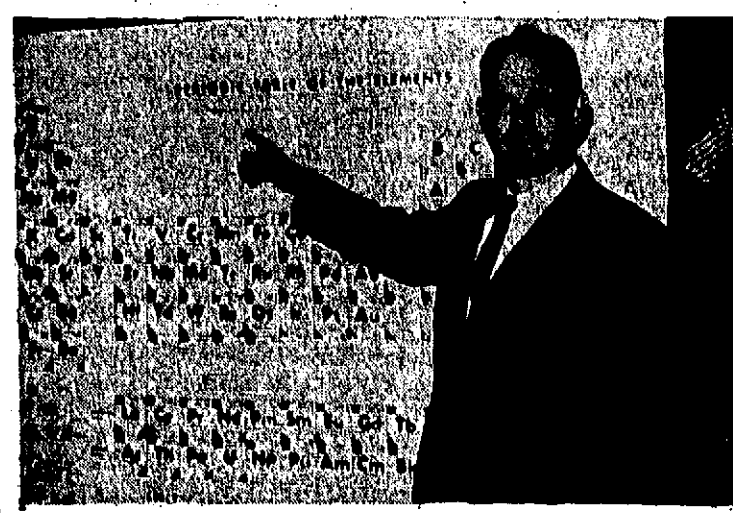

Testimony was that Mrs. Mallory forced Mrs. Stegall from the car at rifle point and stood guard over the bound couple in a dark room, holding a rifle in one hand and a flashlight in another.

An Extra 24 Hours Every Four Years Comes to Man -- Enjoy Today While You Can

By MARY ANITA LASETER

"Not enough time" is an oft-heard complaint from those who are busy (AND some who ain't).

The quick-frozen this and the quick-starting that. Are methods we "moderns" use to combat

Over ever-increasing need to provide

More time for our interests that grow ever-wide.

Did you forget that every four years

The whole world is given (both "people" and "peers")

24 hours like free trading stamps To "cash in" at churches, homes, or at camps? Perhaps it's at work or maybe at play Where we find ourselves this one bonus day.

Bachelors Day the calendar says It's really for girls (and all o' that jazz).

Wellows, feign horror at the girls' pursuit.

But don't run so fast if they're pretty or cute.

The race can be won by the swift OR the slow,

According to those who really should know.

This Feb. 29 can be really good For doing some things (that we often should)

Like writing that letter, cleaning that desk,

Raking the yard, and doing our best. Trying being a friend to some-body new —

It helps both your feelings whenever you do.

Extra hours that make 24 Mean extra smiles (or an extra chore).

It depends on the ones who give or receive

With time-honored love, and how they believe.

We're measured by what in a heavenly clime? By footprints we leave on sands we call Tide.

$9,000 Worth of Honesty Useless

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP)—Monroe Harris' $9,000 worth of honesty didn't pay very much. Harris, 43, a Pontiac trusty serving a 90-day disorderly conduct sentence at Oakland County Jail, found a canvas bag containing $9,000 while he was washing a sheriff's patrol car Thursday.

Harris turned in the money, which had been overlooked in transferring cash from one branch bank to another.

Told of Harris' honesty, Judge Cecil McCallum ordered him freed right then. Harris' sentence would have run out anyway Monday.

Secretary to Aid Glenn's Campaign

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Miss Nancy Lowe, a secretary at the manned spacecraft center, resigned today to join Marine Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr., a former astronaut, in his effort to win a U.S. Senate seat in Ohio.

She said she will be Glenn's private secretary.

Miss Lowe, 23, has been secretary to astronaut Donald K. Slayton, an Air Force major who is assistant director of the center in charge of the flight crew operations division.

Rules Dad Can Watch Birth

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—There's nothing at all wrong with dad watching junior come into the world in a delivery room, the state has ruled.

Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk's ruling Thursday declared that from now on fathers may watch childbirth in the delivery room if mother, doctor and the hospital agree.

Formerly, fathers were barred from California delivery rooms by the State Public Health Department—although a number of hospitals said they ignored the rule.

Czechs Sending Goods to Cuba

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A shipment of food, clothing, medicine and agricultural tools said to be worth $5 million has arrived from Czechoslovakia to aid Cuban victims of Hurricane Flora, Havana Radio said.

The merchandise was donated by the Czech people and government for aid to Camaguey and Oriente provinces, according to the broadcast monitored Thursday night in Miami.

U.S. Top Brass More Worried About Laos

By MALCOLM BARR

HONOLULU (AP)—The top brass in the U.S. Pacific command talk a lot about the Communist threat in Viet Nam. Actually, they are more worried now about developments in neighboring Laos.

In the strategy rooms in Hawaii, home of the U.S. military command for the Pacific and Far East, there is increasing concern over the continued gains of the Pathet Lao—the Laotian Communists—at the expense of the small Indochinese nation's right-wing and neutral factions.

U.S. military men accuse the Pathet Lao, aided by Communist North Viet Nam, of daily violations of the 1961 Geneva agreement which paved the way for a coalition government and guaranteed Laotian neutrality.

These Pathet Lao military gains have given the Communists control of important routes leading into Viet Nam. Thus the North Vietnamese Reds have ready supply lines to their guerrilla units in So Viet Nam.

One U.S. military man called Laos "the shakiest problem in Asia."

Laos, however, is just one of the headaches for Adm. U. S. Grant Sharp when he becomes U. S. Pacific military commander this spring. Sharp, commander in chief of the U. S. Pacific Fleet, was officially named Friday as successor to Adm. Harry D. Felt, retiring as Pacific commander.

While Laos momentarily heads the list, Sharp will have to wrestle with Viet Nam and other possible trouble spots in his huge command.

In Viet Nam U. S. military men have found evidence in the new government's activities to give them some confidence.

Optimism, however, is a word seldom heard about Viet Nam in military circles here.

29ers Plan 10th Grand Conclave

PITTSBURG, Kan. (AP)—World chapter No. 1 of the Order of 29ers—an organization of men, women and children born on the exclusive leap year day of Feb. 29—will open its 10th grand conclave Saturday.

There are no initiation fees, no dues, no meetings because its grand conclave is mythical and observed in spirit only.

The leap year organization is growing so fast that its founder in a spirit of levity, suggests that help from Congress or the President may be in order.

Pepper Martin, former St. Louis Cardinals baseball star, is among the nearly 2,000 persons listed on the rolls. Nearly every state and three foreign countries—England, Switzerland and Holland—are represented.

Just this month the order enrolled its first set of triplets. They are John Henry, Jacob Aric and Arand Jack Pette of Mt. Vernon, Wash., born Feb. 29, 1948.

The order was formed in 1928 by the Pittsburgh Headlight and Sun after F. W. Brinkerhoff, its editor, editorially extended sympathy to those who were short-changed on birthday observances because of leap year.

Brinkerhoff said today the organization "got results the first year. Letters have poured in, not only from over the United States but from foreign countries, requesting memberships, which means scrolls — and scrolls and postage stamps do not grow on trees around here. This is one fraternal organization without initiation fees or dues."

Allen Shipp Dies Saturday Morning

Survivors include a son, George of Irvin, Texas and a daughter, Mrs. Paul Mitchell of Normangee, Texas.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced later by Herndon-Cornelius Funeral Home.

Chronicle Is Often Delightful

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "Chronicle," usually the relief show for "CBS Reports" once a month, is often a delightful oasis of network television. It is a spot that gives the viewer a chance to enjoy a small view, an amusing situation or an interesting group.

Wednesday night's half hour show was an informal tour of a famous gentlemen's club in New York City called The Players, founded 76 years ago by the great actor Edwin Booth and with an illustrious membership of artists, writers and, of course, actors.

We wandered past paintings by Sargent, looked at a skull Booth used in "Hamlet" and a dagger John Barrymore carried later in his version of the same role.

But the most engaging portion was a session in the club's bar with members Marc Connelly, Howard Lindsay and Dennis King—all dedicated raconteurs—recalling some of the wittier quips and cracks of members through the years.

It is as certain as anything else in the currently topsy-turvy of television programming that Lucille Ball's replacement in CBS' powerful Monday night lineup of comedy shows next season will be Bea Benaderet. Her "Petticoat Junction" moved quietly into the top 10 shows this season.

Judy Garland is expected to wind up her CBS shows next month with a couple of one-woman shows. Her recent solo hour was so well received that it was decided to try some more.

Valerich said, "I moved on to Scottsville. Frazier put me onto the O'Briens. I asked about Jack Charlton. Charlton had been found dead in his own office with a gun in his hand."

The Lieutenant must have seen the shock in my expression because he laughed in my face. "So you don't know everything, Duffey. So there are a few details you missed."

"I guess I must have," I said. The Lieutenant went on: "Maggie took care of the money in the family and made it grow. Herbert got three hundred a week. Herbert was real happy with his birds, until he met Gail. She was Charlton's secretary, remember? She pointed out to Herbert that he was a man, and that he was being taken by his sister. Herbert was a recognized authority on cage birds. Herbert had all the necessary permits—Federal, state, the works—for importing birds from Mexico. Did his own collecting. And who ever looked in the bottom of a bird cage for heroin? Solly, Briant, and the girl moved the cars across the border. Crismon of Zona Oil used his Quonset hut to alter cars and license plates so they could be moved across the border without detection."

"And remember, no money changed hands. The Mexican syndicate paid off in heroin. And $10,000 worth of heroin Mex equals about $50,000 state-side."

"Covalt," I said, "where did he fit?"

"He didn't. He was a jealous husband."

The next day, when Maggie was back, elegant in a pink sharkskin suit, I asked her about Jack Charlton.

"You'd been such a pluperfect fool," she told me, "that Jake Chavez thought he'd better do something about it."

"Jack Chavez?"

Agreement to End Red Wheat Sales

DENVER (AP) — Sales of wheat to Russia will halt if the United States insists on having 50 per cent of the wheat shipped in American vessels, a major seller said Thursday.

"It's just plain foolish to expect the Soviet Union to pay the $8 to $9 freight differential per ton which shipping in U.S. ships adds to freight costs," said Ben H. Nordemann of New York City.

Nordemann, head of the wheat sales division of Continental Grain Co., spoke at a meeting of Colorado wheat growers and grain dealers.

Thinks Scranton to Be Nominated

GLAMOR—IN FIVE LANGUAGES—The name is Elke Sommer, a German sex kitten along the lines of Marilyn Monroe—only a bit more robust. Elke is the busiest actress on two continents. The reason why lies not alone in these photographic studies of her but also in that she's a fine actress who can bring realism to any role through the five languages she speaks fluently. Her latest picture is "The Prize." Currently, Elke is co-starring with Peter Sellers in "A Shot in the Dark," on location in London. She can truly lay claim to the status of international star.

Plan to Work for a While at Least

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The $11.5-billion income tax cut—largest in history—has now become law with the blessing of two presidents and both houses of Congress. It is based on hope and faith.

Corporations, with more money to spend because of the tax reduction, will now spend it and in this way boost the economy and cut down unemployment.

For a while, at least, this economic blood-transfusion will work.

People will be able to spend more to buy what they want and need. And business, with more money to invest to supply the demand, will expand plants and production.

But the patient may begin to develop anemia—thus defeating the very purpose of the tax cut—if, through hunger for a buck, inflation raises the cost of everything.

For example: If business, seeing customers with more money to spend, raises prices and labor, either anxious for some of the loot or because it feels workers need even more money to keep up with prices, begin a broad demand for higher wages.

So, in addition to the hope the plan will work, this tax reduction is based on faith in the good sense of the country: That Americans won't get greedy.

Nobody has said it plainer than President Johnson Wednesday night in his talk to the nation after signing the bill into law.

"This," he said, "is a bold approach to the problem of the American economy."

"We could have chosen to stimulate the economy through a higher level of government spending. Instead we chose tax reduction—and at the same time we reduced government the turf, shook and arranged its magnificent hundred-eyed plume. There was no danger here of any sly native planting bamboo razors in its dancing ground.

So I held on to her hand as we strolled along and I thought that all the king's horses and all the king's men couldn't hold a candle to Maggie O'Brien.

Biggest Complaint a Loud Snorer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Nine men and two women left a fall-out shelter Thursday after a 24-hour test.

They ate biscuits, hard candy and water; the men slept on a concrete floor; the women slept on a mat and a cot; there was 10 square feet per person in the shelter.

They wouldn't make an immediate evaluation of their stay, but some had at least one complaint: A loud snorer.

HERE'S A 12-POINT TEST FOR EVERY MOTHER

By DR. JOYCE BROTHERS

Here is a short true-and-false test for mothers. It reveals something very interesting, but just for fun, I won't tell you what until after we've finished scoring it. Just write "true" or "false" after each question. And later I'll tell you what it's all about.

1. My mother and I have always had a very close relationship.
2. My father and I have always had a very close relationship.
3. My childhood was happier than average.
4. My parents have had a happy marriage.
5. I have a very satisfactory sex life with my husband.
6. My general health is excellent.
7. I am not considered a nervous person.
8. I'm fairly happy-go-lucky. That is, I don't worry much about my problems.
9. I very rarely lose my temper.
10. I'm afraid I'm not an overly orderly or efficient housekeeper.
11. I'm a sound and restful sleeper.
12. I usually feel cheerful.

The best answer to every question is, "true." If you had a perfect score, this means you probably have exceptionally well-adjusted children. Here's why: A group of psychologists at the University of Chicago made a study of school children and their mothers.

They considered two things. First: How the mothers were raising their children, and, second: Whether the mothers were basically happy and contented women.

They discovered that the mental health of the children depended not so much on whether the mothers were strict or permissive, warm or stand-offish in their child-rearing attitudes, but mainly on whether the mothers are contented within themselves.

The 12 questions you've just answered on this test are the 12 surest clues to good adjustment in a housewife. Chicago psychologists found that any woman who is so serene and happy and relaxed that she gets a perfect score on this test just can't seem to help being an excellent mother. That's true whether she's rich or poor, bright or dumb, educated or illiterate and whether she seems to be conscientiously trying or not.

MILAN, Italy (AP)—Blocked funds or not, the embattled Balzan Foundation plans to name all its 1963 prize winners. Its secretary general, Col. Aldo Danielli, says he will put up the prize money himself if necessary.

A Balzan spokesman said Thursday prizes of about $50,000 each probably will be announced this weekend for history and literary criticism, paleontology, astronomy and astrophysics, and political economy.

The Swiss government froze the Swiss - Italian foundation's funds in Swiss banks this week because of an internal dispute over the way the $151,000 Balzan peace prize for 1963 was awarded to the United Nations. A number of members of the Balzan prize committee complain they were not consulted.

Johnson Back in Hospital
NEW YORK (AP) - Actor Van Johnson, who underwent surgery in mid-January, has reentered Memorial Hospital for Cancer and Allied Diseases for what were described as minor complications.
A hospital spokesman said Johnson is expected to leave the hospital over the weekend but that he had canceled his scheduled opening next Tuesday at Harrah's Nightclub in Lake Tahoe, Nev.
A series of hospital appearances by the 47-year-old entertainer began about a year ago when a skin cancer was removed from his left thigh.
The spokesman said Johnson had returned Thursday because the January incision had not healed properly and an infection had developed. The spokesman called it a minor situation.
It was sixteen years after the Louisiana Purchase before Arkansas became Arkansas Territory.

Personal Mention
(This story was taken from the Saint Paul Sun, St. Paul, Minnesota)
Halloween is the time for tricks or treats, but Curtis Deloney, pictured above, remembers Halloween of 1961 as "not much of a treat." That was the day he was drafted into the United States Army and it just happened to interrupt his job in Washington, D. C. as an insurance examiner for the Federal Housing Administration.
Served the two years that Curtis served in the Army really weren't too bad after all. After basic training at Fort Ord, California, he was assigned to Fort Lewis, Washington as a military pay specialist. Happily, that was the job assignment he really wanted . . . and he was well qualified for the spot. His college degree had prepared him for the battery of tests the Army required for MOS classification . . . and Curtis admits he learned heavily on the parts of the tests that were his forte.
Curtis, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Deloney, 771 St. Anthony Ave., St. Paul, and the grandson of Mr. S. D. Deloney and the late Mrs. Annie Deloney of Hope, Arkansas, is a graduate of the University of Minnesota with a BBA degree from the College of Business Administration. His major was accounting.
"I always knew I wanted to go to college," he says. But as most college students in their first year or two, Curtis wasn't sure what his major would be. "I had thought I wanted to be an engineer, but later decided on accounting. Now I'm very pleased with the choice I made." But he found his college days very busy ones. Working at part-time jobs after classes and studying, Curtis found time to be an active member of the Accounting Club and the Campus Advertising Agency. As a matter of fact, he's still a busy young man.
Right now, Curtis is busy learning a new job, at The Pillsbury Company in Minneapolis. He was discharged from the Army in September, 1963 and spent the next few months back at his alma mater brushing up on accounting techniques. Three weeks ago, he "just happened to walk into Pillsbury looking for a job." Within a week, Curtis completed a battery of selection tests (reminiscent, he says, "of the Army tests") and confessed he "did pretty well." Then it was a series of interviews spread over several days and within 10 days Curtis joined the industrial accounting department at Pillsbury.
Enthusiastic about his new job, Curtis says, "There's a lot to learn." But Pillsbury's accountant training sessions which

Bobcats Take Fairview In Home Final
By CARTER HARDAGE
Hope Star SportsWriter
The Bobcats clicked their winning streak to six games Friday night by shooting down the Cardinals 76-68 in Jones Field House.
In the last home court game of the year, the Cats gained revenge for defeat at the wings-tips of Fairview earlier in the season.
Hope started slowly, dropped into a trailing position, and then came storming back to recapture the lead 16-12 at the end of the first period of play.
Both teams played rugged ball during the Second Quarter, with Hope going still further out to a 44-32 lead.
The gap widened for the Bobcats during the Third Quarter, as they were in a 60-41 command as the period came to an end.
Fairview started edging up during the final quarter, mostly from the charity line, but never did they pose a serious threat. But some Fairview fans thought they did, nevertheless.
Sports fans got a double treat last night. Not only did they see the Cats take a conference victory, but they also got a change to see one of the Beatles. He played for the Cards. Possibly not one of the originals, he might still pass for one. His name is really Johnston, but everyone insists on calling him Ringo.
Jerry Burnett had a big night to be high scorer with 23 points, Dan Jones had 18, Bill Reinhardt 15, Paul Henley 13, Mike Archer 12.
meet weekly for on-the-job training is helping along those lines. And, as his schedule permits, Curtis hopes to take some further night classes at the University.
"Right now, though," he says, "my new job is the important thing."
But when he's away from the job, 25-year-old Curtis, who lives with his parents, admits he's a "real jazz fan," loves to dance and is an avid reader, with special interest in current events. He's a member of the Les Gentilhommes in St. Paul, a social and civic organization and one of 42 such clubs which form the Twin City Council of Clubs. The group works with other community organizations in promoting worthwhile projects and Curtis points out that the club has "an enjoyable time," too, with social activities that range from picnics to dances.
HD Council Meeting
The Hempstead County Home Demonstration Council met Saturday, February 22, with five clubs represented.
After the business session a workshop was held on making the following items: Jewelry boxes, wastepaper baskets, and assimilated matchbox covers.
The next regular council meeting will be held March 28. Mrs. Hester Witherspoon reporter.

We would like to thank Dr. Martindale, and the nurses at both Memorial Hospital and Nursing Home and all our friends for the many kindnesses shown our mother, Mrs. Bell Thornton, during her long illness.

4, Ronnie Ingram 2, and Larry Thrash 1. Bobby Bush sacked 35 for Fairview.

In the evening's opener, the "B" Boys outgunned Fairview 52-38 by combining strong defensive work with hustle on offense.
Dennis Ramsey led the scoring attack with 23 points. Buddy Jordan 16, Paul Guerin 6, Bobby McGill 5 and Virgil McNatt 2.
Tonight the Bobcats and the "B" team both go to the other side of the world to play the Crossett Eagles. If Hope shoots down Crossett, not to be an easy job, and Camden defeats Malvern, which they have a good chance of doing, the District would be all tied up. The Tourney site would then be decided by the flip of a coin.
The Leopards play down in Camdenland. Since at Malvern they managed to pull the game out of the fire by a 46-44 score, the Panthers are out for blood tonight.

Old Movies Mean Lot to Van Johnson
By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) - Television's passion for rerunning old and middle-aged feature films at all hours of the day and night has had a curious effect on the career of Van Johnson.
Although he is 47 years old and has been an important motion picture star for 20 years, use of these elderly films has gained him a legion of young fans.
This Peter Pan status in television currently bugs Johnson who yearns for some interesting, meaty dramatic parts.
"Hell," said Johnson heatedly, "I'd sure like to do something in television from New York. But how do you get on shows like 'The Defenders,' 'The Nurses' or 'East Side, West Side'?"
"Maybe they think that I'd want $10,000 a crack, but I'd just like a good part. I'd pay them if they'd let me have it."
It isn't that Johnson has not had opportunities to do a television series.
"I turned down 'The Untouchables' when it was offered to me in Hollywood," he continues. "And I've never been sorry. Then—and now—I couldn't imagine driving to Desilu to work every day of my life."
The youthful-looking actor, recovered now from two successful operations for the removal of a malignancy, is not just looking for work. His film commitments call for one picture a year and he has a very successful nightclub act.
"There's lots of money in playing nightclubs," he said. "But my big problem is that, after all those years of working at MGM, I can't get used to staying up late. I still wake up at 6 o'clock—ready to go to work."

Sued Manager Finds Backing
LITTLE ROCK (AP) - The Board of Directors of the Preferred Risk Insurance Co. of Fayetteville is standing behind W. M. Ritter, president of the firm, who was sued Tuesday for mismanagement.
The board said in a statement Thursday that the suit, filed by Dr. Friedman Sisco of Springdale, a stockholder, was without foundation. Ritter said eight of the 11 board members attended the meeting.
Sisco's suit, filed in Washington Chancery Court, asked that Ritter be required to return to the company $1.8 million which the suit said he paid himself without authority from the board. The suit also said he acquired 100,000 shares of the firm's stock without full payment.
The board, in its statement, expressed confidence in Ritter.

Here are little minds hearing words, receiving impressions, being taught. A passing teacher fixed it that way.
"Little pitchers have big ears." That is why wise sayings often fall from tiny lips...they are repeating you.
What words are you passing on to your child or your neighbors' children...what are you teaching them? They all have talent but it must first be awakened by someone if it is to grow and be productive. We can give them good tastes in food, recreation, reading and religion. Actually, we carry the next generation on our shoulders. I wonder where we are taking them.
Are we giving them good environment? Do we take them to church?
Their future depends upon The Lessons We Teach.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we

THE CHURCHES OF THIS COMMUNITY ARE THE ONLY INSTITUTIONS WHICH HAVE AS THEIR MAIN FUNCTION, THE TRANSFORMING OF HUMAN LIVES. THEY ARE THE SIGN BOARDS POINTING THE WAY TO GOD.

Sponsors of these messages urge faithful church support. Through these pages the appeal is for all men to stand up and be counted . . . to combat Communism on all fronts . . . to be faithful to God.

OUR PASTORS ARE GOD'S SERVANTS WHO CALL THE SIGNALS AGAINST THE ORGANIZED FORCES OF EVIL. THEY INVITE YOU TO ENLIST ON THE SIDE FOR GOD . . .
